ZOOK
Seriously, what would you do? Tell me.

TANG
I tell you and then you order the pizza.

ZOOK
Yeah, man, just tell me.

TANG
We roll over to Dutch. We get our business in place. We know we have at least five soldiers that are down for anything. We put them on payroll. They with us now. That takes care of that. We put a word in to Wild Man. Let him know we got space in need of inventory. We lock it up. We good. We got both ends covered. We roll up on Angel, take her out, her crew, all in one night. And that's how we do. Now order the pizza.
